

Kia ora

We are looking forward to welcoming you next month! As a student at the University of Auckland, there are many experiences in and out of the classroom that await you, from the lifelong friends you'll make to the clubs you'll join, and the life skills you'll master to the memories you'll cherish for years to come.

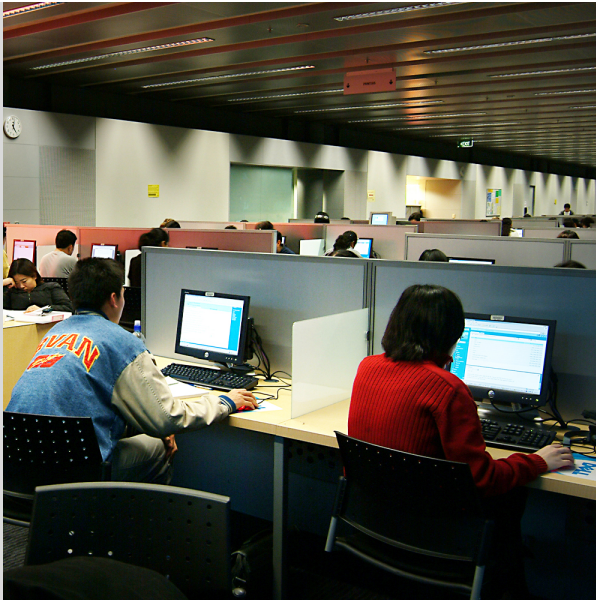

This email contains information that will help you navigate and find resources you can access during your time at Waipapa Taumata Rau | The University of Auckland.

Please ensure you RSVP to attend your faculty Orientation. We can't wait to see you!

Semester Two Orientation

Orientation is your chance to learn about the University, life on campus and how we can support you with a successful transition. With events and sessions run by faculties, support services, Auckland University Students' Association (AUSA) and more, this is the opportunity to start making new friends, find out where to access student support, ask any questions about your course and get information about how you can make the most of your time at uni.

DELNA assessment

Complete your Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment (DELNA) before you start your programme. Should this not be possible, you can use one of the computer clusters on campus to complete this in your first week of semester.
